PGI COMMERCIAL LAUNCHES RAILROAD PROTECTIVE PROGRAM

MORRISTOWN, NJ, June 16, 2009 – PGI Commercial today announced the addition of a railroad protective program. Coverage is provided by Certain Underwriters at Lloyd's, London which is rated A, Excellent, XV by AM Best. PGIC was appointed by the Ark Syndicate, which leads the London market railroad protective consortium, to manage the facility.

The policy has standard limits of $2,000,000/$6,000,000 and no deductible or SIR. The product is available in all states with a minimum premium of $2,500. Coverage is written using the CG00351207 form with a broadening amendment to the definition of physical damage.

PGIC is also pleased to announce that the program will be underwritten by Angela Freburger-Hammond who recently joined the firm. Angela has in excess of 10 years experience in underwriting railroad protective business and has an extensive knowledge of the class.

Insurance producers who would like more information about this product should contact Angela Freburger-Hammond at 410-692-2142 or ahammond@pgicommercial.com.
